

Beauty Kitchen: Creating An At-Home Spa Experience

Beauty Kitchen, a luxurious all-natural skin care line, was created in 2012 by Heather Marianna. Beauty Kitchen provides a simple do-it-yourself beauty regimen by using everyday kitchen products. What started as a YouTube channel viewers flocked to see the latest products in order to incorporate them into their everyday lives. To date, over 3 million viewers have viewed the channel.

"Staying gorgeous and pampering yourself doesn't have to cost a lot [of] money, states Marianna. It just requires a little imagination, a healthy dose of creativity and an occasional glass of wine."

Many of Hollywood's elite have instantly become fans of the line by picking up items at various gifting suites. Fans include: Angela Bassett, Ellen Burstyn, Travis Wall, Beau Bridges, Patric Warburton, Richard Kind, Viola Davis with daughter Genesis, Christina Milian, and many more. Christina Milian was also overheard stating her love for the line, "I love Beauty Kitchen. I have their stuff by my bathtub right now."

Beauty Kitchen has something for everyone and also comes in fun packaging. A treat 'within' a treat, many of Beauty Kitchens' products resemble sweets of some sort, such as the seemingly real soap cupcake-which is one of the line's most popular items.

Retailing at the low price range of $12.95-$34.95, Beauty Kitchen gives you the opportunity to feel like a million bucks, without actually having to spend a million bucks. The line carries: soap, oils, masks, bath salts, scrub, and many more. Stay tuned and connected with the latest from Beauty Kitchen!
